- 4.6 Packing, where required and unless otherwise stated, will be charged to the Customer in addition to the price of the Goods.

5 Delivery and Insurance

- 5.1 For a destination within the United Kingdom the Company will arrange delivery of Goods to any address specified by the Customer (“the Specified Destination”) and will charge the Customer with all delivery costs. For a destination outside the United Kingdom, the Company will at the Customer’s request and costs (such cost to be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the price for the Goods) deliver Goods to the most appropriate port or airport in the United Kingdom (“the Specified Port”), arrange to ship the Goods to the destination specified by the Customer and insure the Goods during shipment in accordance with the London Underwriters Institute Cargo Clauses (All Risks), Institute War Clauses, Institute Strike and Civil Commotions Clauses. Provided that the Company shall be under no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage arising through the choice of carrier or any act or omission of the carrier.
- 5.2 The Company shall use all reasonable efforts to deliver the Goods in accordance with times specified but shall not be liable for any loss or damage arising from late or non- delivery however caused. Refusal of the Customer to accept part or whole delivery at the time specified in the Contract shall permit the Company to treat the Contract as repudiated by the Customer and to decline to make further deliveries without prejudice to the Company’s right to recover damages for breach of Contract.
- 5.3 Any insurance of the Goods by the Company will not extend beyond the point at which the Goods are delivered on the carrier’s vehicle to the Specified Destination or the Specified Port as the case maybe and the Customer shall arrange insurance of the Goods during off-loading from the carrier’s vehicle and transit to and installation in the Customer’s premises.
- 5.4 The Customer shall keep the Goods comprehensively insured against loss or damage (and in the event of such loss or damage shall hold the proceeds of such insurance on behalf of the Company as trustee for the Company) until such time as title to the Goods passes to the Customer in accordance with the provisions in Clause 7 below.

6 Passing of Risk

- 6.1 For a destination within the United Kingdom the risk of any loss or damage to or deterioration of the Goods from whatsoever cause arising shall pass to the Customer upon arrival of the Goods on the carrier’s vehicle at the Specified Destination.
- 6.2 For a destination outside the United Kingdom the same risk will pass to the Customer on arrival of the Goods on the carrier’s vehicle at the Specified Port.

7 Passing of Title

- 7.1 The title to and the property in the Goods shall not pass from the Company until the Customer shall have paid to the Company the whole of the sums due to the Company under the Contract. Should the Customer remain in default of any payments under this Contract the Company reserves the right to decline to make any further deliveries irrespective of which contract with the Customer they spring from and to rescind the Contract in question without prejudicing its right to take back at once from the Customer the Goods which by virtue of this clause are still the Company's property.
- 7.2 If it should not prove possible to detach the said Goods the Company shall have full legal and beneficial ownership of the unit into which the Company's Goods have been inserted without accepting any liability whatsoever in respect of such converted Goods. The Customer shall store all Goods delivered by the Company but for which payment has not been made in such a way as to be clearly separate and identifiable from the Customer's other Goods and products and the Customer hereby grants to the Company, its servants or agents the right in default of due payment to the Company at the stipulated time to enter onto the Customer's premises for the purpose of recovering such Goods.
- 7.3 If the Customer shall sell any Goods delivered by the Company in such manner as to pass to a third party a valid title to the Goods but shall be in default of payment to the Company the Customer shall hold the proceeds of such sale on trust for the Company providing that nothing herein shall constitute the Customer, the agent of the Company, for the purposes of any such sub-sale and also providing that the Customer shall not be entitled to sell such Goods after the appointment of a Receiver to its property or it has been placed in liquidation or not being a Company has committed an act of bankruptcy.

8 Claims

- 8.1 The Customer shall examine the Goods on delivery for any obvious damage or shortage and any Claims must be communicated to both the Company and the carrier in writing within three days of delivery. Any other Claims that the Goods are not in conformity with the Customer's order must be communicated to the Company within seven days of delivery.
- 8.2 Non-delivery shall be reported in writing to the Company within three days of the date of advice of dispatch or respect of Goods bound for a destination outside the United Kingdom where the Customer has requested the Company to arrange shipping and insurance in accordance with Clause 5 non-delivery shall be reported in writing to both the Company and the carrier within fourteen days of the scheduled arrival date at the overseas port or point of arrival.
- 8.3 If the Customer fails to give notice or report in accordance with the Clause, Goods of the quality and quantity specified in the Contract shall be deemed to have been delivered to the Customer and the Customer shall be bound to pay for the same.
